Świętokrzyskie -our region

Poland is made up of 16 voivodeships. Świętokrzyskie is one of the smallest provinces, created in 1999. It is situated in south-central Poland and takes its name from Świętokrzyskie mountain range.

Świętokrzyskie Mountains

A characteristic feature of the region are the Świętokrzyskie Mountains – one of the oldest mountain ranges in Europe. The two highest peaks are Łysica(612m) and Łysa Góra(593m). According to some legends, Łysa Góra (Bald Mountain) was the place of witches' sabbaths.

KIELCE

The capital of the province

The capital of the province and the biggest city of the region is Kielce with about 206 thousand inhabitants.

BIGGEST CITIES AND TOWNS

The voivodeship contains 31 cities and towns. The biggest ones, apart from Kielce, are: Ostrowiec Świętokrzyski, Starachowice, Skarżysko Kamienna and Sandomierz.

STARACHOWICE OUR TOWN

Starachowice is situated in the north part of Świętokrzyskie Province in the terrace picturesque valley of the Kamienna river. There are ideal conditions for tourism and leisure development in the town as well as in the surroundings because of forest complexes, water reservoirs, some monuments and landscapes,
